

Join CFRA today! Together, members of the family strengthening field can be a powerful and unifying voice for California's children, families, and communities.

Mission

To advocate for the innovative public policies and resources needed for families and communities to thrive and succeed.

Why Should Your Organization Join CFRA?

- Stay Informed. Receive news and calls to action on industry specific legislation, regulations, reports, webinars, and workshops, all in one convenient location.
- Make a Difference. Help shape our statewide policy agenda to mobilize the field around your community's top priorities.
- Become a better advocate. Receive trainings, tools, templates, and one-on-one guidance on how to communicate most effectively with state and local policymakers. Learn when, where, and how to impact the issues that are important to your organization.
- Access Resources. Obtain access to funding opportunities and capacity-building services including special events, webinars, and a monthly Policy Committee.
- Increase Capacity. Building your organization's advocacy capacity will help you protect your vital funding sources, organize your base of support, and model the value of advocacy for your clients.
- Get Connected. Network and learn from your colleagues in other family serving organizations from across the state, both in-person and through our online members-only forum.
- Let your voice be heard. Be represented by CFRA staff at dozens of policy and fiscal committee hearings, conferences, coalitions, and advocacy meetings with key stakeholders.

"Members of CFRA work with families across the state, and they see every day the difference it makes to provide early support to families. They know firsthand that investing upfront in families has long-term payoffs – both for children and communities. This is a message that policymakers need to hear loud and clear." – Deborah Ortiz, Former CA State Senator
